PSA's BHARAT MUMBAI CONTAINER TERMINALS CONTINUES TO PROVIDE EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES TO JNPT PAPs

With the arrival of three new Super Post Panamax Quay Cranes manufactured by Doosan Heavy Industries on 11 April 2018, Bharat Mumbai Container Terminal ("BMCT") – a subsidiary of PSA International – will be recruiting a new batch of operational and technical staff.

In its continued commitment to provide employment opportunities to the surrounding villages of Jawaharlal Nehru Port Trust ("JNPT"), BMCT has issued offer letters to 70 selected candidates comprising of JNPT Project Affected People ("PAP") and local residents. They will join BMCT over the next few weeks and commence their training at various PSA terminals in India.

The candidates passed rigorous selection criteria including "fear of height", aptitude and psychological tests; as well as interviews. Credentials of JNPT PAP candidates were also verified by the Dy. Collector (Land Acquisitions) and by JNPT.

Mr. Sivakumar K, General Manager of BMCT, said, "We look forward to welcoming the new recruits into the BMCT family, to learn and grow with us. We are confident that the intense and expert training provided by the PSA India team will enable the new recruits to attain the same high productivity levels of the current BMCT team.

"This new recruitment exercise will also support the manpower requirements of additional equipment deliveries scheduled for late 2018 and early 2019."

Parents of the new recruits expressed their happiness at the development. Mr. Ganesh Tukaram Mhatre, father of Mr Vaibhav Ganesh Mhatre, said, "I am very happy with the way BMCT has done the recruitment and given opportunities. I am very optimistic and positive about my son's future as he will be joining a professionally-managed company."

Father of Mr. Ninad Gangaram Patil, Mr. Gangaram Lahu Patil commented, "BMCT did an excellent job in the recruitment process. We are looking forward to BMCT bringing good career opportunities for the educated and talented youngsters in the nearby locality."

With rapid growth in BMCT's rail volumes, supported by its Delhi office for NCR region and the regular barge services, BMCT is poised to meet JNPT's initiative to reduce road congestion through alternative modes of container transfers.

BMCT was officially inaugurated by India's Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi on 18 February 2018.
